

FCSIT 2026

November 20-22, 2026

2026 5th Eurasian Conference on Frontiers of Secure and Intelligent Computing

Organized by Yunnan University and University of Southern Queensland, hosted by the School of Information Science and Engineering of Yunnan University, and co-organized by Universitat Politècnica de València and Chengdu University of Information Technology, the 2026 5th Eurasian Conference on Frontiers of Secure and Intelligent Computing (FCSIT 2026) will be held in Kunming, China, on November 20-22, 2026.

The conference is an annual gathering where academicians, industry delegates, practitioners, and students share research progress, learn from each other, and discover new trends in the field of secure and intelligent computing.
